

Trustee training from training professionals

lively informative
accurate
interactive
practical

“First rate! Two lively and informative trainers made this complex subject easy to digest.”

Trustee and Engineer, engineering company

“I had expected to learn, which I did, but had not expected to enjoy it, which however I certainly did.”

Roger Bambrough, Chairman of Trustees and Non-Executive Director, Laura Ashley Holdings Plc

“I would unreservedly commend this course to any Trustee – regardless of their experience.”

Gerard Smart FCA, Chairman of Trustees

“For me, what made it relevant were the ‘war stories’. This really helped with the practical application.”

Trustee and HR Manager, consulting company

Trustee training by training professionals

Chairman

Chief Executive

We founded the Trustee and Pension Management Association in 2005 to provide professional training for pension scheme trustees.

Our objectives in providing training are to make our courses:

- Accurate
- Informative
- Practical
- Lively and interactive

Our training team is made up of specialists in adult education and is very experienced in financial services and pensions training. The training is provided by training experts Emile Woolf International Ltd, whose clients include PricewaterhouseCoopers, Ernst & Young and a number of FTSE 100 companies. TPMA also draws, where appropriate, on experienced external speakers.

Accompanying our courses is our comprehensive 295 page 'Pension Trustee Guide', covering all aspects of the Pensions Regulator's 'Trustee Knowledge and Understanding' requirements. All courses provide a certificate of attendance for inclusion in your training log.

We have a wide range of courses to help you meet your obligations as a trustee. Our training record speaks for itself: 100% of course participants rate our courses as excellent or good.

As an association we offer ordinary membership to interested parties.

Please take the time to read our brochure and for further information call us on 01344 388011, email info@tpmaglobal.com or visit our website at www.tpmaglobal.com

So you're thinking of becoming a pension trustee?

Suitable for	Those considering taking on the role of pension scheme trustee. We run courses for the trustees of both defined benefit and defined contribution schemes. It may be particularly appropriate for people deciding whether or not to accept a nomination or appointment as a member-nominated trustee.
Duration	½ day
Locations	Various – see booking form or our website for details.
Course overview	Areas covered on this course are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">· The role of a pension scheme trustee· Duties and responsibilities of trustees· Risks of being a trustee· What information to ask for prior to becoming a trustee· What information to ask for on appointment· Introduction to pensions· Outline of the role of the Pensions Regulator including an explanation of the Trustee Knowledge and Understanding requirements and the other codes of practice.

Trustee knowledge and understanding

Suitable for	New and experienced trustees.
Duration	1 day (intensive) 2 day (moderate pace)
Locations	Various – see booking form or our website for details.
Course overview	This course addresses the knowledge and understanding requirements.

Courses for defined benefit and defined contribution are available.

The course covers the following syllabus:

- Pension schemes
- Pension schemes – the regulatory framework
- Trust law and trustees
- Taxation and pensions
- New trustees – relevant scheme documents
- Organisation and administration
- Disclosure of information and reporting to the regulator
- Investment
- Principles of investment
- The investment process
- Scheme funding
- The quality of the employer covenant
- Discharging scheme liabilities – transfers and winding up

Chairing pension trustee meetings – a course for chairpersons

Suitable for	Any trustee acting or considering acting as a chairperson.
Duration	1 day
Locations	Various – see booking form or our website for details.
Course overview	The course is intended to enable chairpersons to understand the important role of chairing a trustee board. External speakers are also involved in the course to examine current topics such as assessing the employer covenant and the latest investment tools available to trustees. The course covers a broader range of skills and areas of interest over and above our usual trustee training courses. Areas covered on this course are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">· Special provisions covering the role of chairpersons· The chairperson – working with the sponsoring employers· Developing a trustees’ business plan and risk register· Developing scheme governance· Use of sub-committees· Record keeping of meetings and secretarial support to the trustees· Managing conflicts· Managing advisers The course allows time for discussion and questions throughout.

Trustee knowledge and understanding – refresher

Suitable for	Experienced trustees or trustees who have previously attended our 'Trustee knowledge & understanding' course.
Duration	½ day (intensive) 1 day (moderate pace)
Locations	Various – see booking form or our website for details.
Course overview	The Pensions Regulator's code of practice on Trustee Knowledge and Understanding requires trustees to keep their knowledge up to date. This course is intended to update previous course attendees on any changes in legislation or guidance. An update to the TPMA 'Pension Trustee Guide' is also provided as part of this course, along with a certificate of attendance.

Actuarial valuations and assessing the employer covenant

Suitable for	Trustees or chairpersons of defined benefit schemes about to undertake a scheme specific funding valuation. External professionals experienced in actuarial and employer covenant issues are also invited to speak and are available to answer any questions.
Duration	½ day
Locations	Various – see booking form or our website for details.
Course overview	Areas covered on this course are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">· Background to actuarial valuations· Types of actuarial valuation· Setting assumptions· Roles of:<ul style="list-style-type: none">– Trustees– Employers– The Pensions Regulator· Assessing the employer covenant

Trustee training – tailored to your pension scheme

Suitable for Any trustee board seeking training on a specific area or areas.

Duration As agreed

Locations Nationally

Course overview We can provide tailored training to meet your exact requirements.

Perhaps there are some issues facing the scheme on which you would like some training before you need to make particular decisions – for example in the context of corporate transactions, benefit changes or proposals for the closure or wind-up of the scheme.

Whatever your requirements, from business planning to scheme investments, our experienced team will help you to develop a training plan to meet your needs.

Please visit www.tpmaglobal.com for course details and to book online

TPMA, Bracknell Enterprise & Innovation Hub
Ocean House 12th Floor, The Ring, Bracknell, Berkshire, RG12 1AX
Telephone: 01344 388011 · Email: info@tpmaglobal.com